

For Immediate Release

Sweetontheladies Moves to West Virginia

Multiple stakes winner and Grade I placed, Sweetontheladies has moved to O'Sullivan Farms in Charles Town, West Virginia for the 2025 breeding season. Sweetontheladies is by Twirling Candy, out of the stakes placed Yankee Gentleman mare Whataclassybrood. With earnings of $408,012, Sweetontheladies won and placed in multiple stakes races, including the G1 Alfred G. Vanderbilt Handicap, the G3 Gulfstream Park Sprint Stakes (twice), G3 Frank J. DeFrancis Memorial Dash, G3 Smile Sprint Stakes, Sunshine Millions Sprint Stakes, Crystal River Handicap, Pelican Stakes, and the Juvenile Sprint Stakes.

Sweetontheladies stood his first 4 seasons at Pleasant Acres in Florida. His first foals are just hitting the track and he already has a winner named Sweet Cha Cha who broke his maiden on debut at Gulfstream Park.

Sweetontheladies will stand for $1,500. He will join Aldrin, Capo Bastone, Golden Years, Last Print, Limehouse and My Prankster for the 2025 stallion roster at O'Sullivan Farms.